In Wisconsin at a charivari, generally called a "shiver-ee," the bride became so excited and shocked at the proceedings of the unlawful marauders that brain fever set in and she died. We have always been of the opinion that the average so-called "shiver-ee" is a very out-of-place transgression of the law. - Gordon Journal.

MRS. CECELIA STOWE, Orator, Entre Nous Club. GHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 22, 1902. For nearly four years I suffered from ovarian troubles. The doctor insisted on an operation as the only way to get well. I, however, strongly objected to an operation. My husband felt disheartened as well as I, for home with a sick woman is a disconsolate place at best. A friendly druggist advised him to get a bottle of Wine of Cardui for me to try, and he did so. Cardui for me to try, and he did so. I began to improve in a few days and my recovery was very rapid.
